Celebrating 15 Years

WITH MUCH APPRECIATION

For Dunedin Supper Club's Patrons

Dunedin Supper Club's Patrons

Chris and Cheryl Staynes

Chris and Cheryl Staynes have spent years showing up for Dunedin families when it matters most, not through grand gestures but through steady, repeated generosity.

Their support of the Dunedin Supper Club runs deep, especially at the live auction, where they've donated exceptional wine cellars year after year, building a highlight of the evening that everyone looks forward to.

RMHC New Zealand have been fortunate to have them alongside us for so long. Every dollar raised through their generosity goes straight to families with a child in hospital, keeping them close when distance and cost would otherwise pull them apart.

Thank you, Chris and Cheryl, for everything you've given and everything it's made possible.

THANK YOU

Your support gives local families with a child in hospital what they need most, each other.

Eddy's Story

Dunedin toddler Edmund Rosevear, known as Eddy, was diagnosed with bilateral Wilms tumours, cancer in both kidneys, and faced 12 weeks of chemotherapy at Christchurch Hospital.

During treatment, Eddy and his parents, Jordy Fogarty and Ryan Rosevear, stayed at Ronald McDonald House so they could remain close to him. To help pass the time, Eddy and his mum drew butterflies together, a simple thing that became a source of comfort for the whole family.

Those same butterfly drawings now feature on a special Wellington Phoenix kit, worn by both the Men's and Women's teams for a national charity match.

The match worn jerseys were auctioned, with proceeds going back to Ronald McDonald House, the place that supported Eddy's family when they needed it most.

We thank Eddy's parents for bravely sharing their story at our 15th Anniversary of the Dunedin Supper Club.

THANK YOU

A note from Lisa Tai, Chief Executive, RMHC New Zealand

Kia ora and welcome to the 15th annual Dunedin Supper Club.

As the new Chief Executive of RMHC New Zealand, I'm delighted to be joining you for an evening that reflects the incredible generosity of the Dunedin community and its longstanding support of families with a child in hospital.

When a child becomes seriously ill or injured, everything changes in an instant. At RMHC New Zealand, we ease some of that burden by keeping families close to the care their child needs while surrounding them with practical support, welcoming spaces and a community that understands what they're going through. It means parents can spend less time worrying about the everyday and more time simply being there for their child.

Last year, we supported more than 4,200 families across New Zealand, including 165 families from Otago. Every family who came through our doors found not only accommodation, but also comfort, connection and the reassurance that they didn't have to face their journey alone.

None of this would be possible without our supporters. As demand for our services continues to grow, events like the Dunedin Supper Club help ensure we can continue providing families with the wraparound care that makes such a difference during some of the most challenging times in their lives.

Thank you for being here tonight. Your generosity helps make it possible for families to stay close when they need each other most.

Ngā mihi nui

Lisa Tai

Chief Executive, RMHC New Zealand

WITH SPECIAL THANKS

To our Auctioneers this Evening

Rob Fowler

Logan Moore

For many years now Rural Livestock have been a generous supporter of Dunedin's Supper Club.

Rob and Logan personally go to heroic lengths to tame talkative attendees - capturing the Town Hall's guests' attention for the benefit of the live auctions. Their passion and patience are appreciated and auctioning expertise respected. We value their contribution to a successful outcome each year.

John More

We appreciate the continued support from John and Bridgette More from Hayward's Auction House. John is our licensed auctioneer and does a fantastic job of auctioneering the alcohol for our live auction and overseeing the online auction. Behind the scenes Bridgette helps with the invoicing side of things for the liquor prizes in both the live and silent auction. Hayward's generous support is invaluable and appreciated.

AUCTION INFORMATION

Every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of all terms and conditions to the auction items. We do, however, reserve the right to post-auction changes. We sincerely hope that everything has been covered off and is 100% correct. Should there be a change or oversight that may relate to a purchase we will work with the winner and the appropriate donor to rectify any issues, and we ask for your understanding and patience should this occur.

Conditions of Sale

ALL SALES ARE FINAL

All auction items and services are sold 'as is' and all sales are final. All auction items and services must be used within the timeframe specified and are subject to terms and conditions as stipulated by the donor.

PASTURE TO PLATE THE PRIME CUT AUCTION

An opportunity to fill the freezer with some of the most tender and tasty meat you will find in New Zealand, born and bred on the Taieri.

The Taieri Plain, the fertile flat stretching southwest of Dunedin, has been farmed since the 1850s. Generations of settlers drained its swampy, alluvial soil into some of the best grazing land in Otago - this delicious carnivore package is a product of that same area.

This lot will keep you full and entertaining for months to come as it includes:

- Half a processed scrumptious cattle beast, raised on the Taieri kindly donated by Lindsay Finch of JR Finch & Sons Limited
- A prime hogget and a whole wild pork generously donated by Rural Livestock
- A 300L chest freezer to store it all in.

All the cuts are ready to go straight into the new freezer that comes with this prize, so winning bidders walk away with both the meat and something to put it in.

Special thanks to Rob and Logan, our licensed auctioneers from Rural Livestock, who were the hunters and gatherers for some of this amazing package.

Rural Livestock has been connecting South Island farmers since 1988 and its agents work saleyards right across Otago and Canterbury, so this beast was sourced by people who know good stock when they see it.

AUCTION #8

FROM OUR HEART TO YOURS

Fractured Heart Hands - A single sheet of glass, one hammer, one chisel and no room for mistakes.

This piece captures two hands forming the heart sign, built entirely through controlled fracture. Alex Hodge doesn't draw or etch the image, he breaks it into existence, striking the glass hundreds of times until the cracks themselves form the shape. Every strike is final. There's no correcting a break once it's made, which means the finished piece is as much a record of decisions as it is an image.

The result catches light like faceted crystal. Move around it and the fractures shift, sometimes sharp and glinting, sometimes softening into a glow, the hands appearing to flicker between strength and fragility depending on where you're standing.

700W x 950H mm, fractured specialised glass with powder-coated black steel framing and wall-mount. A genuine one-off, this exact pattern of cracks can't be repeated even by the artist himself.

Alex Hodge is a Dunedin-based artist working in this fracture technique. More of his work is on Instagram at @fractured.nz.

TWIZEL LUXURY ESCAPE

(FOR 4 PEOPLE)

Beneath the Southern Alps, three nights of five-star adventure await.

Thanks to Dunedin City Motors, yourself and three lucky friends or family will start your adventure in a premium vehicle, ready to take to the road to see some of New Zealand's most striking scenery. The drive alone, past braided rivers and high-country farmland, sets the tone for what's ahead.

Your base is Matuka Lodge in Twizel: three nights of luxury, gourmet breakfasts, and views over Lake Pukaki, the Southern Alps, and Aoraki Mt Cook National Park. Each morning starts slow, with mountain light on the water and nowhere you need to be.

Dine at Poppies Cafe and Restaurant. Unwind at Hot Tubs Omarama, soaking under open sky after a day on the road. Then take to the sky with Air Safaris' 50-minute Grand Traverse flight from Lake Tekapo, soaring over Aoraki Mt Cook, the glaciers, turquoise lakes, ancient icefields, and the Tasman coastline.

This is the kind of trip you find yourself describing to people months later, still reaching for the right words.

THE HIGHLANDS VULCAN ZERO TO 100 IN 3 SECS

(1 PERSON)

Aston Martin Vulcan Hot Laps Experience

Imagine the opportunity to have two laps in the passenger's seat of the awesome Aston Martin Vulcan, the most expensive production car ever brought to New Zealand, around Highlands Motorsport Park.

This is the Aston Martin Vulcan, one of only 24 ever built and the car Tony Quinn calls the best he's ever bought. A 7-litre V12, 800 horsepower, a body built from carbon fibre and aluminium, a top speed north of 320km/h, and 0 to 100 in 3 seconds. It arrived in New Zealand with a $4.2 million price tag and it doesn't do school runs, it's kept strictly for charity.

This amazing auction includes:

- Two laps of the Highlands Circuit for 1 person
- Event entry for 2 people
- Lunch for 2 people at Highlands Cafe

The laps happen at Highlands Motorsport Park in Cromwell, a world-class facility 45 minutes from Queenstown on the full 4.1km circuit.

Date to be mutually agreed, must be taken at a Highlands event weekend.

Alongside the exciting atmosphere of the event at Highlands, there's the National Motorsport Museum, an 18-hole themed mini golf course and the famous Loo with a View.

To date the Vulcan has raised over $200,000 for charity, including support for the Halberg Trust, Ronald McDonald House Charities, and Starship Hospital. At the end of 2025 it raised more than $50,000 in partnership with Shaw and Partners Financial Services, with Liam Lawson behind the wheel, for the Breast Cancer Foundation NZ.

This auction continues that run, a rare chance to ride in a car driven by Tony Quinn that most people will only ever see in photos, for a cause worth the ride.

AUCTION #15

GEOFF WILLIAMS' LOVE LETTER TO OTAGO

Kura II at Dusk Acrylic on Canvas, 140 x 87cm

Kura II was never meant to be a masterpiece. She was built by a retired fisherman in Bluff, a small working dinghy with no pretensions, and today she rests quietly on the still waters of Tomahawk Lagoon. Geoff Williams found her and saw something worth capturing, so he and his team lit her at night using nothing more than car headlights, chasing the exact glow that gives this painting its depth.

Look closer and the story goes further than the boat. Each frond in the Koru pattern winding across her hull represents one of Geoff's grandchildren, his mokopuna. It's a quiet, deliberate detail, the kind you'd miss without knowing to look for it, and once you know, you can't unsee it.

Geoff paints knowing that one day he'll be a memory rather than a presence. These dinghy paintings are his way of making sure that memory carries some warmth, so his grandchildren remember a grandfather who loved them enough to put it in paint. It's a fitting piece for a collection called A Love Letter to Otago, because that's exactly what this is: love for a place, and love for the people he hopes will inherit it.
